PASSION. PURPOSE. PEOPLE.

The Hofmann USA Staffing Approach

We developed our flexible workforce staffing and management solutions with a level of expertise that is unmatched in the industry. Our goal is to help you and your company get the most out of your workforce. We take pride in the attention we provide both sides of the equation; finding employment for those looking for a new career and providing employers with employees that benefit their organization and productivity.

Every client at I.K. Hofmann, is treated as a unique and significant relationship. Actively listening to our clients, understanding their staffing needs, and exploring the culture within their organization allows us to provide an employee that is a high-quality fit. From our initial consultation, until an employee is placed, we maintain consistent communication throughout the on-boarding process.

Our comprehensive candidate assessments allow us to evaluate candidates and their individual skill set beyond surface level data. In addition, through our broad network of both global and local connections, we have the resources to reach beyond borders serving both local and international staffing requirements. Our workforce management system allows us to forecast solutions for our clients enabling them to maintain productivity and stabilize their workforce.

With over 35 years of experience in the staffing industry, a team of top-level recruiting agents, and a diverse and vibrant international culture, we offer workforce solutions that will benefit your organization, increase productivity and save you time and money.

At I.K. Hofmann USA it is critical that we live the words of our mission every-day which states: "We are passionate about uniting and serving a diverse group of people by enabling personal and professional growth, positively impacting the culture of our clients and our communities to succeed in the future of work. We believe that the purpose of providing jobs that feed our employees and their families has a lasting impact on society and changes the lives of the people we meet and connect every day for the better."

At I.K. Hofmann, people of all races from 119 nations work together successfully. It works because we respect one another, allow different opinions, find common solutions and understand ourselves as a team. Only together can we - as a company or team - act swiftly and quickly.

At the beginning of 2020, I.K. Hofmann in conjunction with the four professional sport teams we sponsor, created the sustainable initiative "Diversity Wins."
