At I.K. Hofmann USA it is critical that we live the words of our mission every-day which states: "We are passionate about uniting and serving a diverse group of people by enabling personal and professional growth, positively impacting the culture of our clients and our communities to succeed in the future of work. We believe that the purpose of providing jobs that feed our employees and their families has a lasting impact on society and changes the lives of the people we meet and connect every day for the better."

At I.K. Hofmann, people of all races from 119 nations work together successfully. It works because we respect one another, allow different opinions, find common solutions and understand ourselves as a team. Only together can we - as a company or team - act swiftly and quickly.

At the beginning of 2020, I.K. Hofmann in conjunction with the four professional sport teams we sponsor, created the sustainable initiative "Diversity Wins."
